Faithful Friday Blog Post from Revd David Hildred for Friday 5th August

Luke 22:63-end. To the disciples this week's readings perhaps felt like a train running out of control: they weren't able to keep awake to pray with Jesus, they weren't able to stop him being arrested, they weren't able to declare their loyalty to him, they weren't able to stop the kangaroo court condemning him. And yet it fitted God's plan completely in terms of what he was able to do.

"There was no other good enough to pay the price of sin. He only could unlock the gate of heav'n and let us in". There is only one mediator between God and mankind, and that is Jesus, who is able to do immeasurably more than we can ask or imagine.

Faithful Friday Blog Post from Revd David Hildred for Friday 12th August

Luke 24. During this week we have read about the crucifixion of Jesus and now we finish the gospel with the resurrection and a quick word about the ascension. These two disciples on the road to Emmaus were like all the other disciples: no-one had grasped that Jesus was going to rise from the dead in that very real and physical way. They were also like a number of them in that they met Jesus, albeit without realising it initially. What a marvellous phrase "our hearts were burning within us" when they walked with him and listened to the Scriptures being opened. Let's pray that is the experience of every present-day disciple of Jesus!
